Summary:

Fallon scholarship committee members joined together to discuss this year's applications. Each committee member explained their score sheets. Members gave their total scores and ranking of each applicant. After the tabulation of each submission, committee members discussed and gave their final decision on who would win and how much would be awarded. All committee members agreed on five (5) winners this year each to receive $1,000. There was some discussion after about next year's scholarship, and if there should be any changes made. All members agreed on to make simple changes on the application such as update checklist by adding "avoid rejection on application if sections are not complete”. On Application page one top add language in bold print “complete all application to avoid rejection”. On page five of the application, add a section for the Mother, Father (or Guardian) to provide their tax information, explanation, and for staff to verify tax information is correct.
